NGLISH LITERATURE OF THE 19TH CENTURY.

are selected from a large number equally commendatory of the work:

From Prof. Chauncey A. Goodrich, D. D., of Yale College.

"I consider Prof. Cleveland's 'English Literature of the Nineteenth Century' an appropriate sequel to his 'Compendium.' The author has shown the same just and delicate appreciation of literary excellence in this, as in the former volume; and, as it reaches down to our times, it will be still more interesting to a large portion of the public, and especially to the young. Few persons can understand what an amount of reading, thought, nice discrimination, and laborious cor densation of knowledge, are requisite to the production of such a work; and just in proportion as men toil more extensively in this field, will be the estimate they will put upon this result of the author's labors."

From George B. Emerson, Esq., of Boston.

Inhora."

From George B. Emerson, Esq., of Boston.

"I have examined your 'English Literature of the Nineteenth Century,' and I like it exceedingly It is extremely well and fairly done. The biographical notices are just and discriminating; and, while they are long enough to gratify the curiosity we have to know something of an author, they are so spirited as to awaken a desire to know more. The selections are admirable. I have adopted the work as a text book for my first class, every individual of which is now preparing, under its guidance, to give a fuller account of the writings of some one chosen author."

From Rev. B. P. Aydelott, D. D., of Cincinnati.

"I have examined with much care, and still grast-who desires happiness, its direct result; who wants to 'live while he does live,' 'live till he dies,' and really live, instead of being a mere walking corpse, should become at once a reader of this Journal, and practice its precepts."—Funnain Journal.

NEW BOOK BY REV. JACOB ABBOTT.

NEW BOOK BY REV. JACOB ABBOTT. "BOLLO ON THE ATLANTIC,"

"ROLLO ON THE ATLANTIC."

DEAUTIFULLY illustrated with original designs.

By Jacob Abbott.

"Bollo on the Atlantie" is the first book of a series to be published under the general title of Rollo's Tour in Europe.

Extract from the Preface:

"The books are intended to be books of instruction, rather than of mere amusement; and, in perusing them, the reader may feel assured that all the information which they contain, not only in respect to the countries visited, and to the customs, usages, and modes of life that are described, but also in regard to the general character of the incidents and adventures that the young travellers meet with, is in most strict accordance with fact. The main design of the narrative is thus the communication of useful knowledge; and everything which they contain, except what is strictly personal, in relation to the actors in the story, may be depended upon as exactly and scrupulously true."

THE BEST MAGAZINE.

The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature,
IN literary merit and sterling worth, is without I question the best Magazine published. It is such because it comprises, in moderate compass and convenient form, the excellence—the choicest articles—the cream, so to speak, of all the leading Foreign Quarterlies and Magazines, and the productions of their most gifted pens. In this rospoet, the Kelectic has a decided advantage over all other Magazines.
Omitting articles of mere local interest and minor importance to the American reader, its pages offer to its patrons a large amount of literary wealth, of permanent value, at a small price.

The Eclectic is published in monthly numbers of 144 pages each, making three large volumes a year, and nearly 1,800 pages, richly embellished with 12 splendid portraits of distinguished persons or historical subjects. The price is $5 a year. The January number begins a new volume. Now is a good time to subscribe. Orders for the work are solicited. It will be sent promptly by mail to all who order it.

PROSPECTUS OF THE PROMISITIONIST.

ON or before the 1st of January, 1854, the Executive Committee of the New York State Temperrance Society will issue the first number of a Monthly Temperance Journal, under the title of "THE PROHIBITIONIST."

Its Firild.—Dealing with general principles, with arguments alike applicable to every community where the traffic exists, and with facts illustrative of these arguments and principles, the paper will be National in its spirit, in its scope, in its purpose, and, we trust, it will be National in its circulation and influence. Such is our aim and expectation. We desire to see the Principle of Prohibition established in State after State, till it becomes the recognised policy of the Nation. It is our amhition to bear a part in this great work, and to this end The Prohibitions is established, not as the organ of a society merely, but of a Great Reformation. The Nechestry.—The existing Temperance Journals have little, if any, circulation outside of the Temperance Ranks. Their price almost necessarily restricts them to the friends of the cause. The Prohibitionist is designed for circulation (instead of tracts) among the indifferent and the hostile. For this purpose it is put at a price so low as to enable the friends of Temperance in every school district, by combined action and at an inconsiderable expense, to place a copy in each family that will consent to receive it.

Its Price—One copy for one year — $6.50

And for each additional four copies, $1.00 will be added, for any quantity less than fifty copies.

by sending their papers also, which would, of course, be most thankfully received.

THE NEW YORK MUSICAL REVIEW CHORAL ADVOCATE

Two which This Journal, which has heretofore been published monthly, commences its fifth year in January next, and thenceforward it will be published every two weeks.—on every other Thursday; thereby giving more than twice as much matter, without any increase in price. Each number contains sixteen quarto pages, four of which are new music, consisting of glees, hymn tunes, chants, anthems, dedication and holyday pieces, and, in short, every variety of music adapted to purposes of religious worship, to public occasions, and to the home circle; all of which will be of a practical character, and such as can be sung by persons of ordinary musical attainments. In the editorial department of the Review are engaged (in addition to Mr. Cady, the former editor) gentlemen of the highest talent and ripest musical experience, among whom are George P. Root, William B. Bradbury, Thomas Hastings, and Lowell Mason; and its circle of correspondence, home and foreign, is complete. The Review will also be a regular medium for the announcement of new musical publications by all the leading publishing houses in the Union. The subscription list of this paper is now larger than that of any similar journal in the world, and the new arrangements, rendering it the cheapest as well as (it is hoped) the most valuable musical paper ever published, must largely increase its already unparalleled circulation.

Terms.—One dollar per annum, or six copies for five dollars, always in advance.

The music alone in a volume would cost over five dollars in the usual form. Beside this, thore will be an immense amount of musical news, essays, criticism, instruction, &c., all for only one dollar? Every one feeling a particle of interest in the cause of music will surely subscribe.

Specimen numbers sent on receipt of two letter postage stamps. Address, always post paid.

public, and allords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chievalue, and in that they stand confemedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxons" and "My New Novel," both by Bulwer; "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Black wood, after it has been issued by Messre. PROSPECTUS FOR 1854. THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the geneorus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern.

In the first paper of January next, we design commencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for our columns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS, By EMERSON BRNNETT, author of "Viola," "Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc.

This Novelet, by the popular author of "Clara Moreland," we design following by another, called THE STEP-MOTHER, By Mrs. MARY A DENISON, author of "Home Pictures." "Gestrade Russell." etc.

Miriam, The Avenger; or, The Patal Vow. By RMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, author of "The Curse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Desert-ed Wife," etc.

And last—not least—we are authorised to announce a series of articles from one who has rapidly rise very high in popular favor. They will be entitled A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES,

One Volume 12mo, $1.

The object of this tale is to exhibit in different phases, in high life and low life, the accursed effects of intemperate drinking, the bane of social life, the curse of civilised man. The characters are well and sharply drawn, and the various scenes are well and sharply drawn, and the various scenes are well and sharply drawn, and the various scenes are described with much spirit and graphic effect. *

* We are disposed to rogard the book as the best of its kind that has yet appeared.—Boston Traveller.

It is not often that we read a story of any kind, but we have broken our practice, and have read this book, not only with pleasure, but with a gratification which but very few novels have ever afforded us. It is a quiet and simple, but still striking and effective picture of American social life.—Chicago Tribune.

fully amplified at the end of the year, for the bound work.

Comprehensive in its Character,

Each volume will contain all matter worth recording, which transpires either at home or abroad, and which can serve to instruct or interest the Farmer, the Planter, the Fruit-Grower, the Gardener, and the Stock Breoder; thus making it the most complete and useful Agricultural Publication of the day.

Correct and valuable Market Reports.

The Markets will be carefully reported, giving the actual transactions which take place from week to week, in Grain, Provisions, Cattle, &c.; thus keeping our readers constantly and reliably advised as to their interests. During the past year, the knowledge obtained from these Market Reports alone has saved our readers thousands of dollars, by informing them of the best time to sell or purchase.

Such a Paper is demanded by the Farming

Such a Paper is demanded by the Farming Community.

The publishers confidently believe that the agriculturists of this country are becoming too much awake to the demands of their own calling to be longer satisfied with the slow monthly issues of a paper professedly devoted to their interests, or to trust alone to the irresponsible extracts in a "farmer's column," so popular just now in papers chiefly devoted to business, politics, or literature; and they look for the united support of all the intelligent farmers of this country in their continued effort to farnish a weakly paper of a high and reliable character, which shall be progressive, and at the same time cautious and conservative in all its teachings.

Essentially an Agricultural Paper.

The Agriculturist will not depart from its legitimate sphere to catch popular favor by lumbering up its pages, with the silly, fictitious literature, and light, miscellaneous matter of the day; it has a higher aim; and a small part only of its space will be devoted to matters not immediately pertaining to the great business of Agriculture. The household as well as the out-door work of the farm will receive a due share of attention. The humbugs and nostrums affoat in the community will be tried by reliable scientific rules, and their worthlessness exposed. It is the aim of the publishers to keep this paper under the guidance of those who will make it a standard work, which shall communicate to its readers only that which is safe and reliable.

An Independent Journal.

An Independent Journal.

The American Agriculturist stands upon its own morits; and the truthfulness, seal, and ability, which it brings to the support of the interests of the farmer. It is untrammeled by any collateral buniness connections whatever; nor is it the organ of any clique, or the puffing machine of any man or thing. Thoroughly independent in all points, its ample pages are studiously given alone to the support and improvement of the great agricultural class.

Editorial Department.

The American Agriculturist is under the editorial supervision of Mr. A. B. Allen, its principal editor for the past ten years, and Mr. Orange Judd, A. M., a thoroughly practical farmer and agricultural a thoroughly practical farmer and agricultural chemist.

They will be assisted by Prof. Nash, who has been for a long time one of the most successful farmers of New England, and is now Agricultural Professor of Amherst College; Rev. Wm. Clift, widely known as a pleasing and instructive writer on gardening and other departments of practical agriculture, and, in addition to these, a number of other eminent agricultural writers.

All the editors are men practically experienced in their profession, each of whom can handle the Plow as well as the Pen.

The following is an extract of a letter from Hon William Jay to the author:

"Your analysis of the slave laws is very able, and your exhibition of their practical application by the Southern courts evinces great and careful research. Your book is as impregnable against the charge of exaggeration as Euclid's Geometry, since, like that, it consists of propositions and demonstrations. The book is not only true, but it is unquestionably true."
